

11th Edition of the Hematology Academy:
A focus on the role of modern diagnostics and treatment approaches in acute leukaemia

Friday 19 – Saturday 20 May 2017

Munich Leukemia Laboratory, Munich, Germany

Chair:

Prof. Torsten Haferlach (DE)

Objectives:

- Discuss current and future perspective on the role of modern diagnostics techniques in acute leukaemias through a hands-on preceptorship at a world-leading leukaemia laboratory
- Share insights and discuss key topics at the forefront of the management of acute leukaemias
- Develop non-clinical aspects of daily practice through soft-skills workshops

Day 1: Friday 19 May 2017

12.00 – 12.45	Lunch
12.45 – 13.00	Welcome and introduction to Munich Leukemia Laboratory (MLL)
13.00 – 13.45	Plenary presentation Therapeutic advances in transforming outcomes in ALL
13.45 – 14.30	Plenary presentation Forty years of 7+3 for induction chemotherapy: How can we improve outcomes in AML?
14.30 – 15.15	Plenary presentation Unfit AML: dilemmas and emerging opportunities
15.15 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 16.30	ALL & AML clinical case roundtables: Sharing insights from clinical experiences
16.30 – 17.00	Plenary presentation Diagnostic tools in acute leukaemia: Current and future perspectives
17.00 – 18.00	Tour of the facilities

- 18.00 – 18.05 Closing remarks
- 18.05 Transfers to hotel
- 19.30 Networking and dinner

Day 2: Saturday 20 May 2017

- 08.30 Transfers from hotel to MLL
- 9.00 – 9.10 Welcome and recap of Day 1
- 9.10 – 9.55 Plenary presentation
Transplantation in acute leukaemia: current and future perspectives
- 9.55 – 10.40 Soft skills training
Grant writing
- 10.40 – 10.55 Coffee break
- 10.55 – 12.10 Soft skills training workshop
Grant writing
- 12.10 – 12.40 MLL Interactive laboratory programme
Introduction
- 12.40 – 13.15 Lunch
- 13.15 – 15.15 MML laboratory interactive programme
- 15.15 – 15.45 Plenary presentation
How do we use “big data” to refine diagnosis and improve outcomes?
- 15.45 – 16.00 Summary, close and departures
Presentation of best case study award