

Program

DAY 1 - Thursday 7th September

10:00

Welcome

Dr Maurizio Cecconi
St George's Hospital

10:10

Physiology: when we didn't have RCTs

Professor Luciano Gattinoni
University Hospital of Göttingen

10:35

From basic science to bedside physiology: what have I learnt

Dr Ignacio Monge-Garcia
Jerez De La Frontera, Spain

11:00

Discussion

11:10

Break

11:40

Generation Q

Dr Mark Hamilton
St George's Hospital

12:05

Telemedicine: luxury or necessity?

Professor Richard Beale
Guy's and St Thomas' Hospital

12:30

From logbooks to bigdata opportunities

Dr Nishkantha Arulkumaran
University College London

12:55

Discussion

13:10

Lunch

14:10

Advanced Critical Care Practitioners: a growing workforce in ICU

Carole Boulanger
Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital

14:35

Treating severe traumatic brain injury: state of the art

Dr Andy Eynon
University Hospital Southampton

15:00

Improving outcomes after subarachnoid haemorrhage: looking beyond vasospasm

Dr Matthew Rowland
University of Oxford

15:25

Discussion

15:40

Break

16:00

Critical Care Outreach: does it improve outcomes?

Deborah Dawson
St George's Hospital

16:25

Echocardiography: what everyone should know in 2017?

Professor Antoine Vieillard-Baron
Assistance Publique-Hôpitaux de Paris

16:50

Discussion and End of Day 1

DAY 2 - Friday 8th September

09:00

Barotrauma, volutraume: do they really exist?

Professor Luciano Gattinoni
University Hospital of Göttingen

09:25

Where imaging will be in 5 years

Professor Antoine Vieillard-Baron
Assistance Publique-Hôpitaux de Paris

09:50

Surviving Sepsis Campaign: what has changed?

Professor Andy Rhodes
St George's Hospital

10:15

Discussion

10:30

Break

11:00

Fluids: what to give and how

Dr Maurizio Cecconi

St George's Hospital

11:25

Individualising ventilation with bedside monitoring

Dr Luigi Camporota

Guy's and St Thomas' Hospital

11:50

Quality improvement in pain, agitation and delirium

Dr Alex Rosenberg

Royal Brompton and Harefield NHS Foundation Trust

12:15

Discussion

12:30

Lunch

13:30

AKI: are we really so good and recognizing it?

Dr Marlies Ostermann

Guy's and St Thomas' Hospital

13:55

Go with the flow or wilt under pressure

Dr Max Jonas

University Hospital Southampton

14:20

The impossible to wean patient: what to do

Dr Susanna Leaver

St George's Hospital

14:45

Discussion

15:00

Break

15:20

Social media and bedside practice: beyond the echo chamber

Dr Adrian Wong
Oxford University Hospitals

15:45

Awake and comfortable: sedation state of the art 2017

Dr Jonathan Ball
St George's Hospital

16:10

Surviving an ICU admission: what happens next?

Dr Carl Waldmann
Royal Berkshire Hospital

16:35

Discussion

16:45

End

OUR SPONSORS

