

26th September 2017

Urology Nurses - "here we are"

27th September 2017

Time	Topic and activity	Speaker	Time	Topic and activity	Speaker
13:00-14:00	Welcome and convene the meeting Explanation of the rotating workshops offered during the afternoon session	Rene Zonderland, NL	08:00-08:30	Conference opening and commencement of scientific programme	Kay Willard Chair Education Committee
14:00-17:00	Workshop 1: Nursing interventions in the use of catheters. (A practical session on intermittent and indwelling catheterisation, problem solving, and best practices)	Eva Wallace, IRL Lynn Casey, IRL	08:30-10:00	Too old to be treated for urological cancer Overview of the challenges health care professionals face when dealing with the elderly population in relation to urological cancers	Debbie Watson-Blommaert, NL Prof Cindy Kenis, BE
	Workshop 2: Universal principles of educating patients on IC - what do we need to know? (Look at the evidence, explore difficult cases, how to surmount issues, and develop a risk assessment) Dr Hanny Cobussen-Boekhorst, NL Edith van Wijlick, NL	10:00-10:30	Coffee and tea break-Poster viewing	Lobby area
	Workshop 3: From the Question to the Research Project. (Scientific world café environment - develop the research question using PICO) Barbara Kearns, IRE Corinne Tillier, NL	10:30-12:00	Leading the Way in Urinary Catheter Care at Letterkenny University Hospital - Insertion and Management of Urinary Catheters Plenary session 2 – 20 mins per speaker A descriptive study addressing patient choice for bladder emptying at trial without catheter for acute urinary retention Taking a vision to transform a service enhancing the patient experience: Urology Ambulatory Unit	Lorna Baldrick, IRL Sarah Wilson, UK Tracy Harrison,
18:00-19:00	Evening Education Dinner Welcome reception and "Speed Dating" activity Opportunity for conference attendees to network with peers from other countries.	Michael Sorkin, USA	12:00-13:00	Lunch	Restaurant
19:00-22:00	How literate are our patients?	Dr Michael van Balken, NL	13:00-14:30	Patient Centred Approach in the Management of Painful Bladder Syndrome Plenary session 3 – 20 mins per speaker Allied Health Professionals and Intermittent Self Catheterisation (ISC): Challenging Traditional Practice in the Acute Spinal Setting Discussion: Urology nurses "here we are" "where are we going"	Monica Taylor, UK Samantha Smith, UK
	"Communication matters -The Power of Your Words" Round table discussions – Aspects of good communication in improving patient care Sanae Floyd, UK ALL	14:30-14:45	Coffee and tea break	Lobby area
			14:45-15:30	Educational needs of the urology nurse in the 21 century Awards ceremony and concluding remarks	Rene Zonderland, NL Kay Willard, Chair Education Committee