

Acute Leukemia Summit: Redefining Outcomes in R/R ALL through Evidence and Experience

Novotel Amsterdam Schiphol Airport, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Chairs: Professor David Marks and Dr Elias Jabbour

Day 1: Friday 2 March 2018

12:00–12:30	Lunch
12:30–12:45	Welcome Professor Markus Kosch
12:45–13:00	Chair's welcome Professor David Marks and Dr Elias Jabbour
13:00–13:25	ALL in 2018: Setting the scene TBC
13:25–14:05	Treatment approaches in specific ALL patient populations Dr Nicola Gökbuget
14:05–15:30	Antibody-directed approaches in R/R ALL <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Overview of antibody-directed approaches in R/R ALL Dr Elias Jabbour2. Targeting CD22 in R/R ALL Professor Giovanni Martinelli3. Targeting CD19 in R/R ALL Professor José Ribera
15:30–16:00	Coffee break
16:00–17:00	Clinical case study session All
17:00–17:45	Panel discussion All faculty
17:45–18:00	Closing remarks Professor David Marks

Acute Leukemia Summit

Day 2: Saturday 3 March 2018

08:30–08:40	Welcome and recap of Day 1 Professor David Marks and Dr Elias Jabbour
08:40–09:20	The patient's perspective Patient Advocacy Group
09:20–10:15	Transplantation in R/R ALL Professor David Marks
10:15–10:45	Coffee break
10:45–11:45	Optimising outcomes in R/R ALL: A case-based discussion All faculty
11:45–12:30	CAR T therapy in acute leukaemias Professor Karl Peggs
12:30–12:45	Summary, close and departures Dr Elias Jabbour