

Conference

Digital pathology in daily practice: The current state and the future

2 November 2018 at Paushuize (Balzaal) in Utrecht.

12:30 – 13:30	Registration and reception with lunch
13:30 – 13:50	Implementation of digital pathology in daily practice: benefits of digitalization for patient and other colleagues Dr. Alexi Baidoshvili, pathologist, LabPON
13:50 – 14:15	PIE: The national pathology image exchange platform: faster revision, consultation and panels. Prof. Paul J van Diest, MD, PhD, Professor and Head, Department of Pathology University Medical Center Utrecht
14:15 – 14:45	Regional collaboration in the northern part of The Netherlands using a digital pathology network Bert van der Vegt, MD, PhD, patholoog UMCG,
14:45 – 15:15	Disease processes by pixel analysis - the new era of digital pathology Prof. David Snead, MD, PhD, University Hospitals Coventry and Warwickshire NHS FT
15:15 – 15:30	Break (coffee)
15:30 – 16:00	Complete digital pathology for primary diagnosis: Thirty months' experience at Granada University Hospitals, Spain. Dr. Juan Retamero Díaz, Granada, Spain
16:00 – 16:30	Zelflerende computers in de pathologie. Geert Litjens, afdeling pathologie Radboud UMC Nijmegen
16:30 – 17:00	Volgt
17:00	Borrel