

New Developments in Treatment of Headache Disorders

December 14th, 2019 • AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands

Friday, December 13th	Optional Welcome Dinner*
Saturday, December 14th	Scientific Exchange Meeting
08:30 – 08:55	Registration Desk Open
09:00 – 09:15	Welcome and Objectives
09:15 – 09:50	Evidences supporting novel therapies targeting CGRP in migraine and cluster headache televoting
09:50 – 10:25	Translating physiological theory to clinical practice televoting
10:25 – 11:00	Burden of Illness and Consequences of not treating Migraine Patients eligible for Prevention televoting
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee Break
11:15 – 12:15	Case Based Discussion
	Group A 1. Medication Overuse Headache 2. Cluster Headache
	Group B 1. Cluster Headache 2. Medication Overuse Headache
12:15 – 13:15	Lunch Break
13:15 – 14:15	Challenge discussion of the cases with Faculty
14:15 – 16:45	How new therapeutic options could modify the management of the patient
14:15 – 15:00	New developments in treatment Headaches – galcanezumab data in Migraine and Cluster Headache televoting
15:00 – 15:15	Break
15:15 – 16:15	Panel Discussion with Faculty
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Real World Perspective on the new prophylactic treatments for Migraine
	How to ensure patients eligible for prevention are appropriately treated
16:15 – 16:30	Closing Remarks Evaluation televoting

* For international attendees and Dutch participants travelling more than 75 kilometers or 45 minutes by public transport to the meeting venue a welcome dinner and overnight stay can be arranged. Please contact your local Lilly-contact for information.

PP-GZ-NL-0022