

SAVE THE DATE

umcg

Minisymposium & PhD Defense Rob Mooij

On Tuesday 21st April, we organize a mini-symposium to celebrate Rob Mooij's PhD defense on Wednesday 22nd April. The theme of the symposium will be "Safe Motherhood: Improving the quality of maternal and perinatal healthcare in rural hospitals in LIC". You are cordially invited to attend! Please, block the 21st and the 22nd of April in your agenda.

Date: 21 april 14:00-17:00: Minisymposium (accredited for members of NVOG en NVTG)

Venue: UMCG (room to be communicated)

Registration: j.w.vos-de.vries@umcg.nl

Tentative Programme

14:00-14:30	Registration and coffee
14:30-14:35	Introduction by Jeroen van Dillen
14:35-15:05	Prof. Siriel Nanzia Massawe: "Experiences of working in Tanzania's health system for decades" and reflections on Rob Mooij's thesis
15:05-15:30	Drs. Rob Mooij: "Safe Motherhood: Improving the quality of maternal and perinatal healthcare in a rural hospital in Tanzania"
15:30-16:00	Koffie
16:00-16:30	NVTG: "Research and Education in NVTG" and reflections on Rob Mooij's thesis
16:30-17:00	Prof dr. Jelle Stekelenburg: "Collaboration in research for improving maternal health"
17:00 -18:00	Discussion, closing remarks, drinks and bites

22nd April 12:45 hrs: Rob Mooij's Thesis Defense, Academy Building Groningen