

BROUGHT TO YOU BY
BOEHRINGER INGELHEIM ANIMAL HEALTH

Boehringer Ingelheim Animal Health is proud to announce the first edition of the BRD Academy; a symposium that combines the newest insights into respiratory diseases in cattle with practical cases and learnings.

What is it: an online Academy consisting of 6 digital meetings over the course of 3 weeks. During these meetings you will be updated on the fundamentals of immunology, diagnostics and prevention by experts in the BRD field. Also you will discuss actual cases with fellow veterinarians of different countries to share knowledge and experiences.

When will it take place: on Tuesday and Thursday of every week, from 19.00 to 20.00 pm CET starting in the last week of September

What are the subjects: Bovine Respiratory Disease complex in all its facets (immunology, diagnostics, vaccinology, case reports)
