

Program symposium September 30

| | | | |
|---|---|-----------------|---|
| • | 19.00-19.35 | René van Weeren | Welcome. How did 2500 years of locomotion research bring us where we are now and where will it lead us from here? |
| • | 19.40-20.15 15 min break | Lars Roepstorff | Horse Rider interaction |
| • | 20.30-21.05 | Elin Hernlund | The importance of footing |
| • | 21.10-21.45 | Christian Peham | Modeling of horse locomotion with a focus on spine |

Program symposium October 21

| | | | |
|---|---------------------|-------------------|--|
| • | 19.00-19.35 | Filipe Braganca | Objective gait analysis: what evidence do we have? |
| • | 19.40-20.25 | Sue Dyson | Lameness assessment – the importance of clinical examination, including ridden exercise and behavior assessment, and responses to diagnostic anaesthesia |
| | 15 min break | | |
| • | 20.40-21.15 | Michael Weishaupt | Adaption strategies to lameness |
| • | 21.20-21.55 | Marie Rhodin | Lameness assessment based on quantitative gait analysis |