

Is interdisciplinary spine care an added value? Models and experience from three different settings

Moderator: Bruno Leroy

9:00 – 9:10

The surgeons experience

L. Moke, Leuven

9:10= 9:20

The algologists experience

K. Van Boxem, Genk

9:20-9:30

The PMR specialists experience

K. Sauer, Antwerp

9:30-9:40

Q & A

Controversies in surgical and conservative treatment of low back pain.

Moderator: Gaetane Stassijns

9:40 – 10:05

A critical view on exercise therapy

L. Danneels, Ghent

10:05 – 10:30

Surgical treatment of adult deformities

M. De Kleuver, Nijmegen

10:30– 10:55

Conservative treatment of adult deformities

Fabio Zaina, Milano

10:55 – 11:10

Q & A

Patient centered care and the role of pathways and PROMS

Moderator: Dieter Peuskens, Dominique Verhulst

11:10 – 11:20

A patient-centered approach towards patients with low back pain

A. Berquin, Brussels

11:20 – 11:30

Experience from patient focus groups in the KCE studies

Anja Desomer, KCE

11:30 – 11:40

Place of PROMS in patient centered care

B. Depreitere

11:40– 11:50

Proms and Prems: present and future

Johan van Bussel, Healthdata

11:50 – 12:00

Digital clinical pathways: turning patients into active participants

Thomas Vande Castele, Awell

12:00 – 12:15

Q & A

Poster price and presentation

Patrick Van Schaeybroeck

12:15 -12:25

Keynote lecture

Introduction: Everard Munting

12:25 – 12:50

Status questionis and current policy topics with regard to spine care in Belgium

Pedro Facon, Director-General Healthcare at the Ministry of Health

Closing remarks: the future of spine care in Belgium and the role for the SSBe

12:50 - 1300